SATISFYING NORMAL DESIRES

- PASTOR TIMOTHY CHOW -

Jesus was hungry and weak after fasting for forty days, but he chose not to use his divine power to satisfy his natural desire for food. Food, hunger, and eating are good and legitimate, but the timing was wrong. Jesus was in the wilderness to fast, not to eat. And because Jesus had given up the unlimited, independent use of his divine power in order to experience humanity fully, he wouldn't use his power to change the stones to bread.

We also may be tempted to satisfy a perfectly normal desire in a wrong way or at the wrong time. If we indulge in sex before marriage or if we steal or rob to get food, we are trying to satisfy God-given desires in wrong ways. Many desires are normal and good, but he wants us to satisfy them in the right ways and right time.

The Psalmist declares, "Delight yourself in the Lord and He will grant you the desires of your heart." Psalm 37:4. Whatever we desire, we must consider what God desires first. True discipleship is growing in our understanding and knowledge of what God desires and what He considers the right way and the right time.

When the tempter comes we listen to what God has to say to us and not what the devil says. We need to also ensure our feelings are in line with the Lord and our thinking is in harmony with God's thinking. If we live in that way, we can be confident that we can find satisfaction for our every need and not bring shame or sorrow to our Lord.

WALL OF UNFORGIVENESS A Joyful 'toon by Mike Waters

For if you forgive men when they sin against you, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if you do not forgive men their sins, your Father will not forgive your sins.
— MATTHEW 6:14-15 NIV
