10 Good Reasons To Treat Your Mom

•It is your mother who brings you to see the light of this world. It is she who looks after the helpless you and serves you with all her heart and does everything to make your life comfortable. Just for a day, at least, we shall stop taking our mothers for granted.

•Mother's Day is one occasion that gives you the opportunity to do something for your mother. And if you start wondering about the reasons you need to give your mum a treat, you would end up with more than a zillion ones. Let's just remember the most important reasons for which we need to be thankful to our mums and that would be more than enough to arrange a lavish treat for her on this special occasion of Mother's Day.

•Since your childhood, your mum has washed and ironed your clothes, keeping them sparkling, spotless and without a single crease.

•You have been lucky enough to be picked up and dropped off to and fro your school every single day right from your first day at school.

•Whenever you had a fight or needed to cry on someone's shoulders, your mum was the one who gave you comfort, patiently listening to your complaints and tears.

•Remember the times when you wanted a set of designer clothes and your mother dug out of her own pockets to fulfil your wish?

•Think of the hundreds of incredible dishes your mum prepared for you: the tasty lunchboxes she fixed, the cakes she baked, the snacks, the teas and the delicious suppers. Surely it makes your mouth water even now.

•Your mother is always there for you through thick and thin. She is the person you can depend on to stand by you anytime you need her.

•Remember those times when you needed someone who could make you see reason and give you some godly advice? It was your mother who lent you patient ears and helped you through the hard times in your life.

•Think of the tons of love she continually shows you everyday through her actions, big and small. It can't even be measured. It can only be felt.

What your mother does for you out of love is way beyond measure: but when you see the enormity of her love and sacrifice you realize, "Surely Mum deserves a special treat this Mother's Day.". It would be a small way to show your gratefulness to her.

Thank you Mum! We love you! God bless you!
